

Non-Compliant Building Products Exclusion

It is hereby noted and agreed that this policy does not indemnify You for any Claim directly or indirectly arising out of or relating from the specification, use or approval of any building product or material, which, at the time of use or approval, was not in compliance with any applicable building regulations and / or building code.

All other policy terms, conditions and exclusions remain unaltered.